

Organization

The Arts Council of Rockland

Description

The Arts Council of Rockland, a 501(c)(3) organization dedicated to promoting and advancing the arts, culture, and the role of artists in Rockland County, is actively seeking volunteer board members. Our board members champion the importance of exceptional board leadership and believe that each and every organization needs a strong and effective board to fully realize its potential for good. In addition to the standard roles and responsibilities of a board member, our board members are active advocates and ambassadors for the organization and the arts in Rockland County.

Industry

Nonprofit Arts Organization

Position

Volunteer Board Member

Expectations of Individual Board Members

We expect each board member to:

- Know the organization's mission, policies, programs, and needs.
- Faithfully read and understand the organization's financial statements and board materials in advance of meetings.
- Prepare for, attend, and conscientiously participate in board meetings.
- Participate fully in one or more committees or task forces.
- Serve as active advocates and ambassadors for the organization and fully engage in identifying and securing the financial resources and partnerships necessary for ACOR to advance its mission and collective purpose.
- Leverage connections, networks, and resources to develop collective action to achieve ABC Organization's mission.
- Engage in learning opportunities to better understand the community your organization serves.
- Respect the experiences of all who bring their voices and lived experiences on to the board and into the boardroom and the organization.
- Honor our values.

We are looking for mission-aligned individuals with strong collaboration, communication, implementation, and strategic skills.

If interested in applying please send an email outlining your experience and skill set, as well as why you would like to be an ACOR board member to Dorothy Atzl, ACOR Executive Director, at dorothy@artscouncilofrockland.org.